

DAPHNE FIETZ

Higher Education

2023 – 2024	Fox Fellow, Sidney Sussex, Cambridge University
2020 –	Yale University, New Haven PhD in Sociology Chair: Philip Gorski, Committee: Julia Adams, Paul Lichterman
10/2019 – 03/2020	Goethe University Frankfurt (non-degree) MA Sociology Focus on Political/Social Theory, Philosophy
2018 – 09/2019	London School of Economics MSc Culture and Society (Sociology Department) Focus on Cultural and Political Sociology Distinction in All Subjects Three Times Hobhouse Memorial Prize Winner
2014 – 07/2018	Kunstakademie, Düsseldorf Akademiebrief (equivalent MFA) Visual Arts
2017	Wits University, Johannesburg (non-degree) MA courses in Social Anthropology and Philosophy

Publications

Fietz, D. (2021). Integrating Meaningful Selfhood into the Sociological Study of Political Languages: Blending Mead's Pragmatism and Taylor's Hermeneutics. The American Sociologist.

Fietz, D. (2019). Rational High Ground or Compromise? Liberal Strategies for Coping with Brexit. LSE BREXIT (blog). September 20, 2019. <https://blogs.lse.ac.uk/brexit/2019/09/20/rational-high-ground-or-compromise-liberal-strategies-for-coping-with-brexit/>.

Awards

2023	MacMillan Centre Dissertation Research Fellowship (12.500$)
2023	Fox Fellowship Cambridge University (30.000$)
2022	MacMillan Centre Pre-Dissertation Research Grant
2020	Yale Sterling Fellowship, Best Candidate GSAS
2020	Rejected : ESRC Doctoral Research Fellowship
2019	Hobhouse Memorial Prize, Best overall performance on the Masters Programmes in Sociology

Hobhouse Memorial Prize, Best overall dissertation on the Masters Programmes in Sociology

Hobhouse Memorial Prize, Best overall performance with Distinction, MSc Culture and Society

2018 – 2019 LSE Graduate Award
2016 Award of Meisterschüler by Prof. Tomma Abts
2016 Travel Grant for Beirut, Lebanon
2015 – 2019 Cusanuswerk Germany, Fellowship

Presentations

2024 Comparative Research Workshop, Yale: The Order of Resistance: Engaging the Climate Crisis

2024 ASA Annual Congress, Environmental Section: What's capitalism? How generational location mediates crisis articulation and response in German climate activism

2024 Inaugural British Journal of Sociology Conference: The problem of generational location in crisis articulation and response: Dis/continuities in German climate activism

2023 ASA Annual Congress, Theory Section: Mannheim after the Discursive Turn- Generational Differentiation through a Historically Dynamic Account of Experience and Language

2022 Comparative Research Workshop, Yale: Revisiting the Problem of Generations – The Early Mannheim on Language and Experience

2020 Cancelled due to Covid: IV ISA World Forum of Sociology

- 'Liberalisms' Guises in the Civil Sphere: A Qualitative View on Liberal Performances after the Brexit Referendum' (RC18 Political Sociology)
- 'Within Closed Distrust: The Re-Constructions of Populism's Justificatory Grammar' (RC16 Sociological Theory)

Affiliations

2023 - American Sociological Association
Culture Section
Theory Section

2023 - European Studies Center, Yale

2023 - Association for Protest and Movement Research (ipb), Berlin

2019 - International Sociological Association
RC 16: Social Theory

Professional Service

2024 - Graduate Council Member, Theory Section, American Sociological Association

Reviewer for the American Journal of Cultural Sociology

Recent Working Experience

2022 – 2023 Teaching Fellow, Yale University

- Foundations of Modern Social Theory
- Methods of Inquiry

2014 – 2016 Tutor of Prof. Tomma Abts Kunstakademie Düsseldorf

2014 – 2016 Arts Education for lower grade students Leibniz Gymnasium, Düsseldorf

Art Projects and Exhibitions

2024 Sunset Cinema, Oakville Galleries

2015 Kunsthoch 42 Group Exhibition, UdK, Berlin

2016 Imagine Gruppenausstellung, Whitecastle Project Space, London

2016 Residency at Space 27, Beirut, Lebanon
Workshop for Lebanese students about Performativity and Public Space Al Baba Sweets, Audio-visual Work with accompanying Publication.
The work is based on in-depth interviews with Euroamerican expats living in Beirut. It interrogated the expats' imaginary of Lebanon and their reasons to live in Beirut. Transcripts of the interviews were given to Lebanese, who deliberately commented on these. The publication included the commented version of the transcripts, as well as a theoretical introduction to the work.

2017 Paul Hempt and Daphne Fietz Duo Exhibition, Sittart, Düsseldorf.

2017 Project in Namibia on the memory politics surrounding the Ovaherero and Nama genocide in Namibia. Based on archival work and visual ethnography. In cooperation with the Ovaherero Genocide Foundation

2017 Vertrauen Group Exhibition, KIT, Düsseldorf

2017 Akademie Group Exhibition, Kunsthalle, Düsseldorf

Fluent in German and English